

HEAL is Hiring a Summer 2019 Intern in Navajo Nation

University of California
San Francisco

About HEAL

HEAL (Health, Equity, Action, and Leadership) trains and transforms front line health professionals through building a community dedicated to serving the underserved as their life-long choice. We are a small, dynamic team of passionate global health professionals. HEAL is part of the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF), with offices in downtown Oakland, California. HEAL has been training and supporting health professionals in Navajo Nation since 2015.

Responsibilities

- Approximately 2/3 time supporting operations and logistics for HEAL summer trainings, particularly at Dine College
- Approximately 1/3 time supporting and participating in capacity-building program

Required Qualities

- Passionate about underserved medicine and/or global health
- Excited about spending the summer supporting an international, inter-professional capacity building and training effort
- Self-motivated and self-managed
- Based in Navajo Nation during the timeframe of the role
- Ability to be in-person (including overnights) with rest of HEAL team for:
 - o 1 week in late June (22th – 29th) at Dine College in Tsaile, AZ for the Mid-Fellowship Retreat
 - o 1-2 weeks in July (most likely between 6th and 18th) in the San Francisco Bay Area for the Global Health Training
- Must have access to reliable vehicle and be willing to travel around Navajo Nation as needed
- HEAL values a diverse community: women, underrepresented minorities, and first generation in college strongly encouraged to apply

Mechanism

- Work dates: Begin May 28, finish August 2, with possibility for extension by 1-2 weeks
- Full-time schedule; during time in-person with team in June and July, hours will be irregular (including nights and weekends) and will exceed 40 hours/week
- Will be supervised by Navajo Nation-based consultant, with frequent check-ins with California-based team
- Compensation will be via a consultant arrangement with UCSF
- Compensation before tax for 2 months is $3500
- Transport, travel, and modest meal/incidental costs required for role will be reimbursed or otherwise covered
